

Property Tax Reminder

Property owners must pay their 2020 property taxes by Monday, February 1, 2021 (since January 31, 2021 falls on a Sunday) to avoid penalty and interest charges added to their tax bills.

State law requires any 2020 property taxes not paid or postmarked by January 31, 2021, or the next regular business day when it falls on a holiday or weekend, to be considered delinquent. Penalty and interest of seven percent will be added to the tax bill beginning Tuesday, February 2, 2021.

Penalty charges continue to increase monthly to a maximum of twelve percent. Interest charges continue to increase at a rate of one percent per month until the delinquent bill is paid in full.

The Appraisal District office is located at 841 Justin Road, Rockwall, Texas 75087 and remains open during the noon hour Monday through Friday. The office lobby closes at 4:00 P.M. weekdays. A drop box is located to the left of the front entrance. Please do not wait until the last day as the lines are usually long.

Check the Rockwall Central Appraisal website at www.rockwallcad.com if you have misplaced or need information regarding your statement amount. On the website use the property search, then go to details and then scroll down to taxes due to review your information.

Payments may also be made on the website with a credit card or e-check through the certified payments tab. There will be an additional fee for using certified payments. The district accepts bill pay if your bank offers that option.
